Subject: An Update from Anand Vadapalli, President and CEO

Colleagues,

Late last year, I shared an update with you on a filing made with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) by Karen Singer and TAR Holdings LLC, and our response to the filing. TAR Holdings, for which Ms. Singer is the sole member, is a stockholder in our company.

Ms. Singer and TAR Holdings have since made additional filings with the SEC. Today, we issued a press release commenting on the most recent filing. You can find the release, here. I want to continue to put this situation into context and answer your questions.

As we have shared, our board welcomes feedback from our stockholders. We regularly meet with and engage in dialogue with them. We have held many discussions with representatives of TAR Holdings and Ms. Singer to understand their perspective on our long-term growth plan.

TAR Holdings is now seeking to nominate three candidates to our six-member board of directors. Our board, with the assistance of its external advisors, will review the purported notice of nomination and assess whether it complies with the board bylaws.

The Alaska Communications board will present its formal recommendation regarding director nominations in the proxy statement to be publicly filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with our 2018 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

What is important is that we have opportunity in the market. We have a solid business plan in place. We continue to perform on that plan daily. You can help by continuing to do what you do best – providing superb service to our customers and winning in the market. Our focus must remain on serving our customers.

Thank you for your continued commitment and dedication which has made us Alaska's local, reliable, trustworthy broadband and managed IT services provider.

As is customary with these types of announcements, this news may garner some attention in the media. It is important for us to speak with one voice, and I ask that you refer any calls from outside parties to Heather Cavanaugh who will respond on our company's behalf.

Sincerely,

Anand Vadapalli, President and CEO
