[The following email was sent to employees of Alaska Communications Systems Group, Inc. on December 4, 2020.]

Hi everyone,

I hope this finds you well. I'm writing to share an update on the Macquarie/GCM transaction.

As we shared last month, we took an important step to grow our company. We entered into a definitive agreement providing for an affiliate of two financial sponsors to acquire 100% of our company's shares.

You can read our original announcement, here.

We also shared there would be a 30-day go-shop period. The go-shop period permits the board of directors to actively solicit, initiate, facilitate or encourage alternative acquisition proposals.

The board has received two acquisition proposals. You can read more in the news release, here.

While I'd like to share more with you, this is all we can legally share right now.

Thank you for serving our customers and keeping your focus on them every day. I appreciate you and look forward to sharing more with you in the future.

Thank you for taking the time to read this and happy Friday!

Bill
